Review of 2008-09

Preface

Nadayoga society is social welfare part of Nadayoga ashram. The society is established by members and followers of Ashram. Aims of the society are,

To conservation of music and art through

Bhairavi sangeet vidyalaya,

To serve rural people especially scheduled cast and tribal women through

Craft working and other various projects,

To raise funds and give financial support and assistance in all social works of Nadayoga Ashram.

As the year 2008 passed, it is one successful year to the Nadayoga society and we are on the way of founders dream. The various parts of the society like women craft group, Bairavi sangeet vidyalaya, project New Nadayoga Bhavan are outstanding in the success of society.

The meetings of management committee are held by time and approved all improvements and new establishments. All the members worked nonprofit and sincere through out the year 2008-09.

We hope our success continue next year.
