

Project 3: Bhairavi Sangeet Vidyalaya

It is already said that one of the important aim of Nadayoga society is conservation of music and arts. The society takes over the administration of Bhairavi Sangeet Vidyalay on 01-05-2008 and appointed a teacher. The music school was initiated by ashram from May 2006 at the town Bailhongal. The main object of the music school is to introduce the Indian classical music to rural areas and to train rural talents. The main centre of the music school is in the Ashram.

The music school is equipped with nearly 20 instruments donated by various music lovers. Tuition fees Rs 50/- per month from each student will be collected and used for salary of teacher and maintenance and purchasing of the instruments. The rent 600 per month will be paid by society. There are more then 30 students at present learning music. All the records of the Bhairavi Sangeet Vidyalaya are maintained from the date of adoption.
